

These Are Among the Important New Books in the Scribner Fall List

Letters of James Gibbons

Huneker

Edited with a preface, by
JOSEPHINE HUNEKER.

These letters have all the brilliance of his essays and an even more vivid spirit. Every line is infused with his extraordinary vitality. Illustrated. $3.50

Companionable Books and Their Authors

By HENRY VAN DYKE

In this volume of literary studies, Dr. van Dyke is again the "great sharer," leading the way to a new and beautiful companionship with great writers. Illustrated. Cloth, $2.00; leather, $3.00

The Racial History of Man

By ROLAND B. DIXON, Professor of Anthropology, Harvard University.

A comprehensive and strikingly original work, giving an outline of the development of the human race as a whole. With maps and illustrations. November. About $5.00

Catherine de Medici,

Queen of France

By PAUL VAN DYKE

Professor of History, Princeton University.

This monumental biography is literature as well as history. Two volumes. Late October. $9.00

Horny Hands

and Hampered Elbows

By WHITING WILLIAMS

The author of "What's On the Worker's Mind" here tells his experiences as a laborer in France and Germany. October. $2.50

The Tocsin of Revolt

By BRANDER MATTHEWS

These are Professor Matthews's recent writings on lively topics of present-day literature and social discussion. $2.00

The Black Panther

By JOHN HALL WHEFLOCK

A new volume of poems by the author of "Dust and Light." $1.50

Steeplejack

By JAMES HUNEKER

The growing interest in James Huneker and his writings has made necessary this new one-volume edition of his autobiography, uniform with the "Letters." $3.50

For Boys and Girls

The Children's Bible

Selections by HENRY A. SHERMAN and CHARLES FOSTER KENT

This is the text of the Bible itself, in simple English. With its 30 full-page illustrations in full-color and duotone, it is an admirable gift for any child. $3.50

Bannertail

By ERNEST THOMPSON SETON

The story of a gray squirrel, with the author's own inimitable illustrations. $2.00

Lige Mounts, Free Trapper

By FRANK B. LINDERMAN

A tale of frontier and Indian life with a breadth and interest worthy of Cooper. Illustrated. $2.00

The Black Phantom

By LEO E. MILLER

The author of "The Hidden People" here tells a fascinating tale of the South American jungle. Illustrated. $1.60

The Print of My Remembrance

By AUGUSTUS THOMAS

This is one of the best books of recollections in a generation, reflecting a full and varied life. Illustrated with photographs and the author's drawings. $4.00

Human Nature in the Bible

By WILLIAM LYON PHELPS

In this book, the stories of the Old Testament are interpreted from the literary point of view and its personages are judged by modern standards of character. $2.50

The Return of the Middle Class

By JOHN CORBIN

A clarifying and original discussion of our present social and political predicaments. The author urges an increase in influence for the now neglected middle class. $2.50

Dante and His Influence

By THOMAS NELSON PAGE

Unexpected, original and pointed application of the teachings of the "great Spiritual Educator." $2.00

Americans

By STUART P. SHERMAN

Significant studies of individuals and tendencies, such as "Mr. Mencken, the Jeune Fil", and the New Spirit in Criticism"; "Franklin, Liberator of the Eighteenth Century"; "Roosevelt and the National Psychology," etc. Late October. $2.00

America: A Family Matter

By CHARLES W. GOULD

This book, first printed privately for anthropologists and historians, has a message of general interest. Illustrated. $3.00

Spain and Portugal

By ERNEST PEIXOTTO

This charming volume, beautifully illustrated by the author, contains some delightful excursions "off the beaten track." $3.50

Loyalties

By JOHN GALSWORTHY

Mr. Galsworthy's latest play, a pronounced success in both New York and London. $1.00

For Boys and Girls

Poems of American Patriotism

Selected by BRANDER MATTHEWS

With 14 beautiful full-page illustrations in color by N. C. WYETH. $3.50

Black Wolf Pack

By DAN BEARD

Another wonderful story for boys by the man whose contribution to the literature of boyhood can hardly be estimated. $1.65

Dick and Larry, Freshmen

By FRANCIS LYNDE

The two central figures of "The Donovan Chance" reappear in this story of school days. Illustrated. $1.60

The Story of a Grain of Dust

By HALLAM HAWKSWORTH

Another book of fascinating nature study by the author of "The Strange Adventures of a Pebble." October. Illustrated. $1.60

New Fiction

Broken Barriers

By MEREDITH NICHOLSON

"Mr. Nicholson's literary brew has lost none of its potency. . . . It is supererogatory to say that it is a finely done novel. . . . A master craftsman in his field."—New York Herald.

"Rapidly making a mark for itself. . . . The reader will find a new Nicholson—the calm, uncritical commentator on the changing status of American morals. Mr. Nicholson's book will undoubtedly draw protests from those who 'view with alarm,' but no one can deny its absolute sincerity and delicacy in dealing with problems of the day."—Philadelphia Record. $2.00

The Love Legend

By WOODWARD BOYD

A remarkable first novel. Its appreciation of the genuine and repugnance for humbug make it a sharp commentary on American life. $1.75

Valiant Dust

By KATHARINE FULLERTON GEROULD

A new book of stories by one of the foremost American writers—stories of unusual situations and deeply interesting characters. Late October. $2.00

Playing with Souls

By COUNTESS DE CHAMBRUN

A strange and lively tale with this underlying problem: What becomes of the children of divorced parents? The author was Miss Clara Longworth of Cincinnati. $1.75

The Mysterious Office

By JENNETTE LEE

A detective story in the original vein in which Mrs. Lee has shown herself so pleasingly expert. It concerns Millicent Newberry, who first appeared in "The Green Jacket." $1.75

The Cave Woman

By NORVAL RICHARDSON

The author of "Pagan Fire" has created here a character of great power and originality, who takes what she wants in life. $1.75

Yellow Butterflies

By MARY R. S. ANDREWS

A story of the unknown soldier, to be published late in the fall.

Tales of the Jazz Age

By F. SCOTT FITZGERALD

Author of "This Side of Paradise" and "The Beautiful and Damned."

"All of them are good, several of them are masterpieces, better examples of the art of short-story writing, in my humble opinion, than anything of O. Henry's."—Detroit Free Press. $1.75

